ANNOUNCING OUR DUNFERMLINE EVENT

INTRODUCING ADULT GOLFSIXES
REGISTER YOUR CLUB FOR OUR PILOT EVENT, 18 AUGUST

Do you have adult members at your club with no handicap, or a handicap of 37 and above, who would benefit from a fun, team-based golfing format with other adults of a similar ability?

Due to the success of our national GolfSixes programme for junior golfers, Scottish Golf will now be hosting a series of pilot GolfSixes events for adult beginners.

This event format is ideal for:

- Members who are new to the game (within the last 5 years).
- Golfers with no handicap or a handicap of 37 and above.
- People who would benefit from a fun competition at beginner level.
- Individuals who enjoy social interaction within a team setting, whilst having the opportunity to represent the club at beginner level.
