VOLUNTEERS' WEEK 1-7 JUNE FIND OUT HOW TO CELEBRATE YOUR INSPIRING VOLUNTEERS

2023 marks the 39th year of Volunteers' Week. Scottish Golf is joining thousands of charities and voluntary organisations recognising the contribution volunteers make across the UK. With this year's theme of 'Celebrate and Inspire' we hope to encourage people to be the change that we want to see and get involved in volunteering in whatever way works for them.

Volunteers' contribution is often unseen and unrecognised by many, visible only through the incredible impact of their volunteering. Taking the time during Volunteers' Week to celebrate their efforts and all they contribute to our local communities, the voluntary sector and society as a whole has never been more important.

WHAT'S INVOLVED IN BEING A SCOTTISH GOLF VOLUNTEER?

Scottish Golf is always keen to hear from people willing to volunteer in various aspects of our activities. We offer training and the opportunity to travel across the country to different courses, with the chance to meet like-minded people and support the game at grassroots level. From events and rules, to course rating and performance, there's a whole range of different roles to explore.

SPORTSCOTLAND COV AWARDS 2023

The Sportscotland Coaching, Officiating and Volunteering Awards will be returning for 2023. The nominations window will open later this summer so now is a good time to start thinking about which members of your club team you would like to nominate for the 2023 awards.

In the meantime, discover the inspiring and incredible individuals who were recipients at the 2022 awards.
