

Scottish
Golf

Monday 5 September 2022 Club Communications*

*Due to web issues, club communications were not issued on the 22 August.

In this edition:

-  Golf.Golf from the R&A
-  Women's County Finals
-  Men's Area Team Finals
-  Sport Parkinson's Four Nations Golf

The ten most recent editions of this bulletin will be available for you to view at the link below.

Scottish Golf Club Communications

LEARN TO PLAY

Golf.Golf website now live!

The R&A and Scottish Golf are calling on venues across the country to get involved in an exciting pilot to increase interest and attract a new generation of players to the sport.

The new Golf.Golf online booking platform is showcasing clubs that have signed up to the venture. Venues that choose to sign up to the pilot phase of the initiative have a unique opportunity to be at the forefront of a global expansion of the sport and appear on the Golf.Golf platform. Along with an increase in footfall from new golfers, they will also benefit from involvement in national PR activities, paid-for social media campaigns and industry recognition as a Golf.Golf Friendly venue.

There is no cost for venues to participate, and as this is a pilot scheme, there will be opportunities for you to feedback to the R&A on the success of the programme at your club.

More information can be found in the Golf.Golf Venue Brochure at the link below, or at the Golf.Golf website. You can also register your interest by clicking below.

View the Golf.Golf Brochure

Register Your Interest with the R&A

Women's County Finals

Lanarkshire emerge triumphant as 2022 Women's County Champions

Kirkcaldy Golf Club hosted the 2022 Women's County Finals on the 26-28 August this year, which saw victors Lanarkshire run away with the trophy. Read the full story here.

Women's County Scoreboard

North East win Men's County Finals 2022

Teams from North East, Perth & Kinross, Ayrshire and Borders met at Powfoot Golf Club to battle it out for the Championship this weekend. Read the full story or access the full scoreboard below.

Men's Area Scoreboard

Sport Parkinson's Four Nations Golf

The Sport Parkinson's Four Nations golf tournament is back! On the 11 October, the Scotland Team will be part of a group of 40 golfers with Parkinson's teeing off on The Belfry's Brabazon course. Four teams will represent the four nations of the UK across the two days of friendly competition and fundraising. This year, the recipients will be Cure for Parkinson's. Any help in spreading the word about this worthy cause is greatly appreciated.

Go to the fundraising page

Links to last week's news:

National Education Day | Junior Golf across Scotland

New National Handicap Order of Merit
