

Welcome to the latest Scottish Golf Club Newsletter

In this week's newsletter we bring you more information about our Club Events for 2021, with club's encouraged to schedule their qualifying rounds for next year's Scottish PING Mixed Championship and The R&A 9-Hole Challenge. Clubs can also catch up on our recent WHS Zoom Call which covers some of the most frequently asked questions in relation to the new World Handicap System.

Popular Free-To-Enter Events Return for 2021

As 2020 draws to a close we are delighted to confirm that two of our most popular free-to-enter events will return in 2021 with all affiliated clubs invited to schedule their qualifying rounds now.

The Scottish Golf R&A 9-Hole Challenge makes a welcome return next season with Milnathort, once again, playing host to the two-day National Final on Thursday 10th and Friday 11th June 2021.

The top two pairs from each day will qualify for an all-expenses paid experience of a lifetime playing in the R&A 9-hole Challenge Grand Final at Royal St Georges in July, just days before The 149th Open Championship, where they will compete against teams from across the world for a chance to win the overall title.

Updated COVID-19 Travel

Guidance for Golf

Following the announcement that all Level 4 areas will be moved to Level 3 this weekend, we would encourage all clubs to familiarise themselves with our COVID-19 Golf summary sheet.

This information should be used in conjunction with Scottish Golf's main guidance and clubs should be aware that this guidance may be subject to change at short notice. Should this happen, we will continue to keep all clubs informed on our dedicated COVID-19 webpage here.
