

Scottish
Golf

Club Newsletter, 11 October 2021

Crail Golfing Society - Get Into Golf Initiative

See how Crail are utilising their new Get Into Golf initiative to encourage more females to take up the sport at their club. Hear from Alison Townson, Jane Green and some of the participants at their Get Into Golf event in July.

Watch Video

Affiliation Reminder

Following our recent communication to affiliated clubs in relation to the collection of annual membership information, we would like to remind all clubs that their return to Scottish Golf is due to be submitted by 15 October 2021.

Clubs are reminded that this information should represent their full membership figures as of 30 September 2021.

Affiliation Submission Form

2022 Scottish Medal Finals

With the 2021 season drawing to a close, and prizegivings around the country starting to take place, we wanted to take this opportunity to provide affiliated clubs with details about the 2022 Scottish Medal Finals.

The top three male and the top three female players returning the lowest aggregate of three net scores from your 2021 club medal competitions will be eligible to be play in the 2022 Scottish Medal Finals.

Read More

Activator Training Programme

A reminder that Scottish Golf have, alongside The PGA, recently launched the new 'Activator' training programme that aims to help introduce more people into golf.

You can read more about the Activator programme, including the eight course dates across Scotland by clicking the link below.

Find Out More

Education
And Training

Education Opportunities

SGCMA will be running a new course - "Colour Accounting - A unique visual way to learn about Accounting & Finance" which is now available to book.

This one day course will be run by Adam Wilkinson and will take place at the Stirling Management Centre, Stirling Court Hotel on Thursday 21st October 2021.

Find Out More And Book
